

Dawn M. Harvey

Entrepreneur, Author, Corporate Trainer & Total Capacity Maximizer

What is a Maximizer?

Having insight and knowledge to evaluate others ability to succeed. Going from nowhere to somewhere. Building something from below average to above average. Transforming something from weak to strong or minute to large with dedication and commitment. Aggressively searching for the skills and talents that can be cultivated to achieve a desired result. Having the ability to recognize undeveloped potential and strength in an effort to produce excellence in the lives of others. When Dawn sees potential in others in any area of their life she has a burning desire to share with them the tools and skills that she has developed to maximize her own life with the hope that it will maximize theirs. Having a keen eye for undeveloped skill, talent, potential, desire, ability and gifting, she hones in on the areas that can be groomed and increased in an effort to produce excellence. Her goal is to take something average and make it superb, polishing it, until it shines! Be Maximized!
